Assigned Date: s. XV

Searchable Date Range: 1400 - 1499

Dated by scribe: No

Inscribed Date:

Document: Yes

Number of Scribes: ;

Script: Cursiva

Other Decoration: 15-line initial I, decorated in pen and ink, fills most of the left margin.

Notes: Binding material. The righthand side has been trimmed, cutting off significant portions of the text, and what remains is badly worn. A 10 mm fold on righthand side hides part of the text and decoration. Two signature marks: the sign on the lower right is badly worn and obscured by the fold, but the sign on the lower left is clear. It depicts what appears to be a tree on a three-tier stand. The top of the tree has a crown above a cloud shape; a letter S is wrapped around the bottom of the tree. The top tier of the stand contains the word "Baza" and the bottom tier contains the words "Io" and "Schacz". Dorse has a Union Theological Seminary library stamp and numer 78 circled in pencil in a modern hand. Latin
